

EU-CARICOM Law Conference

October 10th and 11th October 2019

Hosted by Coventry Law School

Beyond Brexit: Sustaining Business and Law Relations

*Call for Papers***

Coventry University, together with the University of the West Indies and Brunswick European Law School, welcomes papers related to any of the below themes. Please note that the below outline is highly provisional and is subject to change.

Please submit abstracts to stuart.maclennan@coventry.ac.uk

Day 1

Morning

Introduction

Keynote Speeches: Exploring the concept of a “Global Britain”

Plenary Session

Brexit: Business and Trade Law Implications

Topics include: trade; commercial law; corporate law; financial integrity; taxation.

Afternoon

Parallel Session 1: Law and Sustainable Development

Topics include: law and social justice; global development; energy; environmental law.

Parallel Session 2: The Rule of Law Beyond Brexit

Topics include: public law; individual and human rights; procedure; access to justice.

Day 2

Morning

Plenary Session

Technological Advancements and the Courts: ‘Challenges for the law and Lawyers’ – Panel Discussion

Topics include: artificial intelligence; digitalisation; implicit bias of algorithms and employment law; cyber security; blockchain.

Afternoon

Plenary Session

‘Our duty’ in Law to support entrepreneurship

Topics include: legal education, teaching, and learning; professional practice; research.

Closing

Feedback, Key themes, and Follow-ups

Remarks from CLS, Brunswick and UWI